

Development Charges 2018-19 - City of Brockville By-law No. 062-2014

Purpose of Development Charges

The general purpose for which development charges are being imposed is to assist in providing infrastructure required by future development in the City of Brockville through the establishment of a viable capital funding source to meet the City's financial requirements.

Rules for Determining Development Charges

On July 22, 2014, the Corporation of the City of Brockville passed By-law 062-2014 under Section 2(1) of the Development Charges Act, 1997. By-law 062-2014 establishes development charges upon all lands within the boundaries of the City of Brockville, payable upon issuance of the first building permit. Development for industrial land use is exempt from Development Charges. Rules for determining if a charge is payable, including exemptions, are detailed in the By-law, Act and Regulations.

Services and Development Types to which Development Charges Relate

The following chart summarizes development charges for the period of July 23, 2018 to July 22, 2019 by service and type of development to which it applies.
